CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING-COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, AND CONSUMPTION.

AND FOR THE RELIEF OF PATIENTS IN ADVANCED STAGES OF CONSUMPTION.

Many years of trial, instead of impairing the public confidence in this medicine, has won for it an appreciation and notoriety by far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of its friends. Nothing but its intrinsic virtues, and the unmistakable benefit conferred on thousands of sufferers, could originate confidence and maintain the reputation it enjoys. While many inferior remedies thrust upon the community have failed and been discarded, this has gained friends by every trial, conferred benefits on the afflicted they can never forget, and produced cures too numerous and too remarkable to be forgotten.

While it is a fraud upon the public to pretend that any one medicine will infallibly cure—still there is abundant proof that the Cherry Pectoral does not only a general thing, but almost invariably, cure the maladies for which it is employed.

As time makes these facts wider and better known, this medicine has gradually become the best resource of the afflicted, from the log cabin of the American peasant, to the palaces of European Kings. Throughout this entire country, in every State, city and indeed almost every hamlet it contains, Cherry Pectoral is known as the best remedy extant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs—and in many foreign countries it is coming to be extensively used by their most intelligent physicians. In Great Britain, France and Germany, where the medical sciences have reached their highest perfection Cherry Pectoral is introduced, and in constant use in the Armies Hospitals, Alms Houses, Public Institutions, and in domestic practice, as the surest remedy their attending Physicians can employ for the more dangerous affections of lungs. Also in milder cases, and for children it is safe, pleasant and effectual to cure. In fact, most of the most flattering testimonials we receive have been from parents who have found its efficacious in cases particularly incident to childhood.

The Cherry Pectoral is manufactured by a practical Chemist, and every ounce of it under his own care, with invariable accuracy and care. It is sealed and protected by law from counterfeits, consequently can be relied on as genuine, without adulteration.

We have endeavored here to furnish the community with a medicine of such intrinsic superiority and worth as should commend itself to their confidence—a remedy at once safe, speedy and effectual which this has by repeated and countless trials proved itself to be; and trust by great care in preparing it with chemical accuracy, of uniform strength to afford Physicians a new agent on which they can rely for the best results, and the afflicted with a remedy that will do for them all that medicine can do.

PREPARED AND SOLD BY J. C. AYER, DRUGGIST and CHEMIST, LOWELL, MASS.

Sold in Bangor at wholesale and retail, by INGRAHAM & FULLER, also by G. W. Emerson, A. P. Guild, G. F. Sargent, Druggists, Bucksport; O. E. Bradley & Co, Belfast; Wm O. Foor, Ellsworth; B. Nourse, Hampden, Isaac Stowe, and by the Druggists generally throughout the country.

COOKING STOVE!

THE best Cook Stove ever introduced to this or any other people.

Having secured the sole agency of this very desirable Stove, I take great pleasure in offering it to my customers and the public. This Stove was invented expressly for this eastern market, by those experienced and expert Stove manufacturers Messrs. Easton & Whittier, who know, and have appreciated the wants of this enlightened people. It is now offered to the public with the fullest confidence in its merits, and its superiority over every other Cooking apparatus ever introduced. Its conveniences for Boiling, Broiling, Frying, &c., are not surpassed, and its extensive and beautiful Oven for Baking and Roasting, will at once recommend itself to the Ladies. One very important feature is, it has very smooth and smooth castings, and being manufactured in this city, can at all times be repaired, if ever needed, at a trifling expense without shipping one to wait for castings to be ordered from New York, Rhode Island, or elsewhere. Every Stove is warranted one year, and one that giving entire satisfaction may be returned and the money will be refunded after 30 days trial.

—ALSO—

A great variety of other patterns of Cooking Stoves, such as the

Our State, Bay State, Empire State, Granite State, State of Maine, &c.,

All or any of which will be sold at extremely low prices.

Elevated Oven Stoves—Hamilton Stand & Boiler and two Ovens—Boston Low Oven Stoves, Forrest Queen, &c., and the very beautiful pattern of Cottage Parlor Cook Stove; and indeed every variety of Stove for Cooking or warming, worthy of notice, can be found at the Central Street Stove and Furnace, No. 2.

CULVER'S COAL FURNACE

Is acknowledged to be the very best Furnace for Coal ever introduced.

PATENTS.

American and Foreign Office

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

No. 22 State Street, . . Boston.

IN 1849 the subscriber was appointed by the Commissioner of Patents Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, in accordance with the 10th Sec. of Act of '37.

Having relinquished the Agency for the transmission of Models, and adopted a more expeditious mode of sending them to the Patent Office where by a Patent may be procured about six weeks earlier, he continues to forward them free of expense—to prepare Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all the necessary Papers and Drawings for Patents; and to render advice on legal and scientific matters respecting the same. Patents secured in Europe and other countries.

By application at this office, inventors are saved the time and expense of a journey to Washington and delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. They also have the advantage of personally explaining their inventions, and of consulting in respect to them, matters in general of paramount importance in order to obtain correct specifications and claims. The experience of sixteen year's practice, an extensive collection of rare works (scientific & an mechanical subjects), the Patent Laws, and patents of different countries, collected at much expense during the long time this office has been established, together with accounts here kept of inventions patented at Washington, enable the subscriber to afford to inventors desirous of procuring Patents assistance and information which in other respects may be of much importance.

E. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

WASHINGTON, JULY 21, 1849.—During the time I occupied the Office of Commissioner of Patents, E. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office. EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents.

Westward Ho!

THE attention of all persons who contemplate emigrating to the "West" is invited to the following facts, to wit

1st. That the subscriber resides in the most fertile region of country in the United States.

2d. That lands are held at so low a price that it is at present within the reach of any man to purchase a farm and in a most beautiful and healthy climate.

3d. That persons who desire to emigrate to that country but have not the means to purchase a farm, when they should get there, that he will sell them farms and wait upon them for the purchase money till they can raise it from the surplus products of such farms.

4th. That one man can raise from his own labor, and that of a span of horses, from $300 to $500 per year besides supporting his family.

5th. That he can locate them upon government land near a good market.

6th. That the location made for them, except upon government land, would be in a good neighborhood of Eastern people, where the privilege of schools are had.

7th. Any person having lands, or wishing to locate any land, can obtain any information they may desire—also any claims which they wish adjusted or collected in the Western States will be promptly attended to upon application to the subscriber.

Also, the highest price paid for Land Warrants, and locations made of the same upon the best lands in the great West, under his own supervision.

NEW MUSIC BOOK.

THE HARPSICHORD!

OR, UNION COLLECTION OF SACRED MUSIC, BY LEONARD MARSHALL AND HENRY N. STORER, TEACHERS OF MUSIC, BOSTON.

THIS work is the most complete collection of Sacred Music ever published, containing about five hundred tunes in [illegible] of the different metres, besides Chants, and more than Anthems and set pieces adapted to every occasion of divine worship and public interest, such as Dedications, Installations, Ordinations, Baptisms, Funerals, Thanksgiving and Fast Days, Opening and Close of Service, Prayer, and Temperance Celebrations, &c., &c. While forming a book of three hundred and eighty four pages, of more than usual size and in large and elegant type, all its contents have been prepared with the greatest care, and under the immediate supervision of the editors. But the number of tunes is not the only recommendation of this work, which is to be placed mainly in the fact that the whole will bear examination, each tune having been thoroughly digested and made, not to fill up the book, but to be sung.

Most of the music in this book is new to the American public, and selections are made from Handel, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Rossini, Russell and others.

Also, FIRESIDE HARMONY, a collection of Glees and part songs, either original or adapted from the German, and never before published in this country.—By Wm. Mason.

Volcano Quartz Mining Company,

Volcanoville, El Dorado Co., CALIFORNIA.

BOOKS for subscription to $75,000 of the stock of this company are now open at the office of the Company, 78 Broadway, New-York.

The unusually rich claims of this company hold out inducements to those who are disposed to invest capital in quartz mining in California, not surpassed, if not indeed, equaled, by those of any other company in that State.

The extraordinary richness of our quartz, as was witnessed by thousands at the late Fair of the American Institute, and the extent of our claims, together with the peculiarly favorable location for economical working upon a large scale, will ensure the most ample and satisfactory returns upon the invested means.

It is well understood by practical men that, with machinery working twenty-stamped quartz, paying two cents per lb, large profits will be realized upon each day's work. It is the intention of the company to obtain machinery sufficient to work fifty tons per day, and to work it in the most economical manner, by which they feel confident of being able to free their rock which will yield from two cents to twenty dollars to the lb, to make returns to their shareholders, which will not only satisfy, but surprise them.

It will be seen, by reading the pamphlet containing the charter, the laws of California, and the details of our plans of operation, that our estimates are based upon two cents per lb, and the expenses of working the mill are put at the present high prices for labor, while it is well known to all who reflect upon the matter, that as the cost of labor shall be reduced the income will be materially enhanced.

If we work 40 tons per day, and get two cents per lb, it will yield $1600, while three, four, or five cents per lb would give a proportionate increase of receipts, the expenses of working the mill would not be increased a dollar, and will be less than $170 a day.

Subscriptions can be made by mail enclosing ten per cent on the amount of the balance, twenty per cent to be paid on the 29th of Nov last, and twenty per cent on the 29th day of December next, when certificates of stock will be issued.

Pamphlets containing the statutes of California in relation to corporations, the rules and regulations of our locality, the charter and by-laws of the company together with much other interesting and useful matter, including a map of a portion of the northern mining region, may be had gratis at the office of the Company, No. 78 Broadway, or

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Whig and Courier.

John S. Sayward, Editor.

FRIDAY, DEC 10, 1852.

☞ The Mercury stated two or three days since that there were seven boys, none of them sixteen years of age, in the jail, in this city, awaiting trial, all charged with the crime of larceny. The same paper also mentioned that another boy had stolen a gold watch from a man in the city, and which he had pounded up.

These eight boys are on the road to ruin and the same causes of neglect and idleness, which have influenced them are wearing away over many more in this our beloved city. Much is done here for the education of youth, and some even complain that so much is done, and groan at the thought of building a school-house, and count over miserly the few cents it will add to our taxes.

It does not the condition of these eight boys show that not enough is done for the proper and training of the children and youth of the city

Instead of complaining of what is now required every man should be disposed to do more in order that the youth of the city may be saved from falling into ruin; that they may be elevated to honest lives, honorable aims and habits of study, industry and sobriety.

The want of home discipline and home culture on account of the ignorance, stupidity, and vile passions of parents, imposes a heavy burden on the public. But do it is, and the public must bend its back and bear it for do worse.—These boys must be saved, or in their loss the community will suffer more than it would cost to reclaim them.

The authorities of other cities are glad to work with the charitable, benevolent and humane, and the truly economical, in the effort to reform the youthful wanderers, and to give a new direction to their footsteps in life's journey to the neglected and almost abandoned children.

These boys in jail! Does not this fact force upon the mind the thought of a Farm School. Does it not lead the wealthy men of our city to the thought of "How much better is a man than a sheep?"

There seems to us a deep, & thrilling significance in the fact that so many of the youth of our city are in the hands of the law on account of their violation of the law. We see in their case and in the case of the greater numbers who are following the same path, a necessity for earnest efforts to save them. The best minds and the warmest hearts, and the heaviest purses should be invoked in behalf of the neglected children of our city. Will they heed the call?

Seven Mile Mirror—Last Exhibition.

Those who have not yet treated themselves to the delights afforded by a view of the Seven Mile Mirror, exhibitions, at the City Hall, and to the rich and attractive concerts by Miss Brotherton in connection with the exhibition of the Mirror, should improve the opportunity this evening.

This is the last exhibition of this beautiful work of art in this city. Countless thousands have visited and admired this exhibition in other cities, and on this evening there is to be a brilliant and fashionable house, as several have promised making this a general visit, as it combines the double entertainment of an exhibition and concert.

Miss Brotherton will sing several of her choicest songs.

☞ A correspondent of the Boston Journal states that the inhabitants of Cincinnati are supplied with water from the Ohio, which is pumped into a reservoir upon Mt. Adams, one hundred and fifty feet above the river, by means of two enormous steam engines. The water of the Ohio is not like the clear, sparkling Cochituate, or Croton, but muddy and vapid. It is not very pleasant to see the drainage of a great city of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, with its lard oil, soap and candle factories, pork-packing and slaughtering establishments, with streams of blood and filth, discharging into the river; and the same one hundred and fifty thousand depending upon that river for water. No wonder that the dry and dusty autumn brings disease, and that when the cholera comes, humanity disappears like the bearded grain before the reaper!

Dodsworth System of Rapid Writing.

We have received four writing books, two of the Ladies' series, and two of the Gentlemens' series, furnished with copper-plate copies which are fac-similes of the writing of A. R. Dunton the most skilful penman in the country. Mr. Dunton has long been a successful teacher of penmanship, and his system has many admirers and imitators. He has now caused it to be published in a form which cannot fail to make it generally acceptable to the public, and of very decided advantage to teachers generally, particularly to those who have large schools, or are not skilful in the use of the pen.

David Bugbee and E F Duren are the Bangor publishers

Chamber's Pocket Miscellany, Vol. VIII.

We have received from Messrs Petridge & Co. the eighth volume of this very agreeable work. It contains a great variety of pleasant and entertaining reading, making it a convenient work to be taken up at any spare moment, and from which to pluck some gem.

David Bugbee has this work for sale.

Waverley Novels, Illustrated Library edition Vol. XVIII. S H Parker and B. B. Mussey & Co., Boston. 1852.

David Bugbee has received the 18th volume of the popular and excellent edition of these Novels now in the course of publication. This volume contains The Betrothed—The Talisman, two volumes in one. The whole series may be obtained of Mr. Bugbee, and it will be found a cheap and handsome edition for the library.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

We have received from David Bugbee a sheet pamphlet containing Mrs. Stowe's popular work, which has created so great a sensation in the country. This edition of the work is designed for the million and is sold at 37½ cents a volume.

The Season.

The weather is remarkably mild—rains have been abundant and mud in excess. Yesterday the soft mild bright weather invited to gardening. In the morning there were in the harbor fifteen sail vessels and three steamboats.—The surveyors of lumber were busily engaged—no snow, no ice, but warm weather and apparent summer.

☞ According to the Havana correspondent of the New York Times, it appears from late developments that the slave trade is still active, and that it is carried on in parts where such things have not been imagined, under the guise of ordinary mercantile transactions. A number of the vessels intended for these expeditions are said to have been fitted out from ports on our Atlantic coast, while the crews have in some instances been shipped in New York.

☞ At a late meeting of the British Horticultural Society, a plant called the Violet Grass was shown, which, if sown in an American border, or similar place, grows and blossoms from October to Christmas. A little patch of it, taken up, and put in a saucer, in water, will keep flowering a long time, rendering it an interesting plant for the drawing room window.

☞ A fire was discovered in the Bangor House, over the oven, yesterday forenoon. The ends of several of the floor timbers were burnt off, and the fire extinguished but not until the chief wing was thoroughly smoked and watered! Damage $500. Insured at the London Equitable and other offices.

☞ The Ohio State Journal avers that the Pierce and King electors, of that State, on Wednesday, adopted a communication to the President elect, requesting him to confer a Cabinet appointment on Col. Samuel Medary, editor of the Columbus, Ohio Statesman.

News From Havana.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7.

A despatch from Washington says that a steamer, no name given, has arrived from Havana in great haste, bringing important despatches, very secret. The despatch is very indefinite, but no doubt the steamer is the Fulton, which was to leave Havana the 2nd inst. with the decision of the Captain General in the case of Capt. Gray and the crew of the Lady Suffolk.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.

The Eastern members come in with considerable feeling on the fishery question. The fishermen appear to have made a great many complaints to their representatives in Congress, and their complaints against the British Government will no doubt find vent in debate and declamation.

The Secretary of State, Mr. Everet, is negotiating with the British Minister in reference to the fishing grounds and in connection with reciprocity of trade.

Some effort is expected to be made to organize a new territory. A delegate from Nebraska is on his way here, claiming a seat.

The protection given in Mexico to runaway slaves has suggested the idea of annexing two or three of the Mexican border States to our own. The San Antonio Ledger (Texas) says that 300 armed men supposed to be Cuban volunteers, are on St. Joseph's Island.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8th.

Steamer Fulton brings despatches from Consul Sharkey, regarding the imprisonment of Capt. Gray, officers and crew. It is supposed they will be released, as there is not sufficient evidence that the Lady Suffolk was engaged in the slave trade; besides, the Captain General was understood to be privately aiding and abetting the slave trade. Every thing is quiet at Havana. Americans were scarce and narrowly watched.

Mexico.

The Revolutionists, proceeding from words to blows, have made a successful descent upon the city of Victoria, the Capitol of Tamaulipas, and, at the last accounts, were threatening to fall upon Tampico. Other accounts state that De Bonilon has had a conflict with the Government troops under Gen. Bilanco, in which the latter were defeated. The State of Aguas Calientes has declared in favor of the Revolutionists, to whom it has contributed large quantities of arms. The authorities of Oaxaca were treating with the insurgents at Vera Cruz, and it was thought that they would surrender to the latter. Two vessels of war, sent from Acapulco to effect the blockade of Mazatlan, had forsaken the Government and joined the service of the insurgents. The progress of events in that unhappy country indicates a speedy crisis. The Revolutionary party evidently gains strength and resolution, and this decisive success will go far towards strengthening their hands.

☞ The Piscataquis Observer is responsible for the following:—

"A gentleman called at a hut in the Aroostook Valley and requested some dinner. The lady, (her spouse being absent,) refused to supply his necessities for money, or, for the love of humanity. "Very well," said the hungry traveller, as he turned his footsteps from the inhospitable abode, "you will want nothing to eat to-morrow." "Why now?" inquired the woman. "Because," answered the weary man, "the Indians are digging a tunnel to Moosehead Lake, and are going to turn all the waters of the Lake into the Aroostook valley, to-night, and you and all the rest of the people will be drowned."

Upon this intelligence the old lady hurried off to the priest to inform him that a flood was to overflow the valley, and to ascertain what should be done in this sad emergency? The priest endeavored to quiet her fears by telling her that God had promised that he would never send another flood upon the earth. "But," exclaimed the affrighted woman, "I tell ye it isn't God that's going to do it,—it's the cussed Injuns." The adjutant seemed to think this a very good refutation of the threadbare argument in favor of drain-drinking. "If rum as a bad thing, why did God make it?"

☞ An Incident. A gentleman of this city, desiring like a good patriot, to serve his country in a lucrative station under the President that is to be, wrote to a friend in the Northern part of the State to secure his influence to get him the office. Two days after mailing his letter he received a similar missive from his friend requesting the same favor and asking his influence for the same office.—Milwaukie News.

☞ Mr. Webster's letter from Boston, published in the New York Post says:

"The subscription paper for a monument and other purposes for Webster, is still circulating. I understand that the twenty-five thousand dollars on a mortgage held by Mrs. Webster on Marshfield have been subscribed and released, and that the design of keeping Marshfield, after payment of all the debts, has been given up as impracticable.

A gold cane sold, netting fifty dollars per acre, and Marshfield, unmortgaged and improved, will sell for more, so as to give double the sum, which would be valuable and comfortable, than twenty acres unimproved costing the same money.

Correspondence.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

BOSTON, Dec. 8th.

Sojourning for the present in Boston, I propose with your permission, to say a few words to you and your readers on the present leading topics of interest in this goodly city. Winter still delays its icy reign. A little frost occasionally indicates his near approach, but the mild air of autumn still continues. The City election takes place next week, and of course forms the leading subject of conversation in political and business circles. Nor is it confined to these. The temperance question is intimately connected with this election, for it is as well known in Bangor as in Boston that the present Mayor and a majority of the City Government are opposed to the Liquor Law. Nor is their opposition passive, merely. They actually hinder its execution, and the consequence is, the watch-houses, penitentiaries and jails, are filled with the wretched victims of intemperance, and the city burdened with an enormous expense. For this and other obvious reasons a change in the administration of the city government is earnestly contended for.

On Sabbath evening last I attended a most interesting service at the Vestry of the Central Church, where Dr. Jeffries, the attending physician of Daniel Webster, gave an account of the sickness and death of that great man. He spoke chiefly of his religious character, and no man is better qualified to bear testimony on that subject than Dr. Jeffries. He is well known here as one of the first Physicians in the city, a Gentleman of talent and learning, and of deep and consistant piety. His opportunities for knowing Mr. Webster's private life and character were peculiar, and it is extremely fortunate that such complete and faithful testimony on that interesting subject can be given to the public. He related many beautiful and touching incidents of the sick chamber and gave most abundant and conclusive reasons for believing that Mr. Webster lived and died a christian. He often declared, in the most emphatic manner, his belief in the atonement and the divinity of Christ. And it is quite certain that none of our public men so frequently and with so much reverence allude to a superintending Providence in the affairs of our country as he did. This great doctrine is every where recognized in his speeches, letters, and private conversation. He set his house in order and died like one of the Patriots of old.

The season for public amusement is now fairly opened, and Theatres and Musical Associations are already reaping an abundant harvest. Of the first there are three or four, all of them I presume making money for their owners. In Theatres more than any where else the extremes of society meet. The richest and the poorest assemble there. Men of doubtful morality and women of doubtful virtue, the idle and the dissolute are met there by the aristocracy of wealth and fashion, and "elegant leisure" occupies the next seat to "idleness." The influence of Theatres is of no doubtful tendency. Christianity, by common consent long since set her mark upon them, warning her followers every where to shun them. When will her warning be heeded and the world choose wisdom rather than folly!

But there are amusements against which these objections cannot be urged. The City abounds with musicians and musical associations, and the public are offered two or three concerts every week, whose influence tends to refine and elevate rather than debase and corrupt. Every variety of music is furnished at these festivals of song. The chaste and refined classic—the grand and thrilling symphonies and overtures, and those magnificent oratorios which stir the soul to its very depths. Among these associations the "Boston Musical Fund Society" should be numbered with the best. The orchestra is composed of about fifty members, each one a master of his instrument, and all performing in perfect tune and time. They gave their first grand concert of the season on Saturday evening last. The new music Hall was well filled at an early hour by a fashionable and discriminating audience, among whom I noticed several amateurs and critics, and none were more delighted than they. The programme was a rich and varied one, and every piece was well performed, and several of them most enthusiastically applauded and repetition demanded.—Miss Catharine Lebman was announced to sing three times and her programme gave the highest satisfaction. She received an enthusiastic encore in each piece, a compliment never bestowed upon an indifferent singer.

Our Bangor friends when visiting Boston cannot do better than patronize this society.—Three afternoon rehearsals are in fact Concerts at the low price of twenty-five cents the single ticket, and eight for a dollar. A sight of the new music hall is of itself worth double the price of a ticket.

A Case of Clairvoyance.

As it is the fashion for newspapers to chronicle everything pertaining to the marvelous, we feel bound to give the particulars, as related to us of a singular discovery of stolen money, said to have occurred lately in this city.

Soon after the recent burglaries were committed, upon the premises of Mr. Morrill and Mrs. Mulliken, a watch and a small sum of money were missed from a chamber in one of our boarding-houses, and it was at first supposed the house had been entered in the same manner as the others. The landlady, however, suspected one of her own boarders of the theft; but could obtain no evidence against him. Having had some faith in mesmerism, and feeling anxious for the elucidation of the mystery, she finally determined upon applying to a clairvoyant "subject," resident in town, a boy of seventeen, who had the reputation of being able to find out hidden things. The mesmerizer was absent; but the subject undertook to put himself to sleep, and having done so, his wonderful second sight immediately enabled him to give all the particulars of the robbery, and the name of the thief, and to describe the place where the property was then concealed—viz: the mouth of the drain which is carried through the stone foundation-wall of the block of stores above the bridge, on the river side. The opening is about ten feet above the foot of the wall, and on search being made, the money and watch were found, rolled up in a piece of cloth, according to the clairvoyant's description. Disbelievers in the science of mesmerism, will conclude that there was collusion in the case; but we are told there is nothing to warrant that suspicion, and furthermore that he has made many other discoveries equally surprising. All we have to say, is, that if the boy, or any other boy, actually possesses the faculty imputed; he might speedily make his fortune as an attache of the police department in some one of our large cities. It is only fearful that he does not make the move.—Eastern Exc Journal.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.

Senate. The Senate convened at half-past 12. The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Navy Department, calling for a plan of classification of the clerks, which was ordered to be laid on the table and printed.

A message was received from the House with a resolution, providing for the election of chaplains, which was taken up and concurred in by the Senate.

Mr. Clemens gave notice that to-morrow he would ask leave to move a joint resolution to confer the rank of Lieutenant General on Major General Winfield Scott.

Mr. Adams, on leave, introduced a bill to prevent unauthorized banking in the District of Columbia.

On motion of Mr. Badger, the Senate proceeded to the election of Chaplain. Forty votes were cast, of which the Rev. C. M. Butler received twenty-seven and was declared elected.

The Kentucky contested election case was taken up. Mr. Jones of Tennessee spoke in favor of Dixon.

The Kentucky election case occupied the Senate until the adjournment.

House. The House met at 12 o'clock.

On motion of Mr Stephens of Georgia, the Speaker was authorized to appoint the several Standing Committees.

The House then resumed the consideration of the proposition to refer the President's Message to a Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, and that 15,000 extra copies, with the accompanying documents, be printed.

Mr. Weightman concluded his remarks, commenced yesterday, in favor of printing 5000 copies of the President's Message, without the accompanying documents, in the Spanish language. He combatted the reasons heretofore urged against the printing the message in any language other than the English, and said that of the 65,000 inhabitants of New Mexico but 500 only can speak the English language; therefore sound policy required the adoption of his proposition.

Mr. Brooks made a proposition to amend that part of the motion to refer the message to a Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, so as to refer that part which relates to the subject of the tariff revenue to a select committee, with power to examine witnesses, and collect testimony here and elsewhere, with instructions to report as soon as possible a bill to reduce the revenues from imports to an amount which may be required for a sound administration of the Government.

As soon as Mr. Brooks's proposition was read, Messrs. Richardson of Illinois, and Jones of Tennessee, rose to questions of order.

The Speaker decided that the proposition to refer was amendable, whereupon Mr. Brooks proceeded to state the reasons which induced him to offer the amendment, the chief of which was that the Select Committee would be enabled to collect the material facts in season to bring the whole question fairly before the House immediately after the holidays and before the consideration of any of the appropriation bills.

Mr. Brooks wished to avoid committing the subject to the Committee of Ways and Means, because in that Maelstrom it would be swallowed up as most matters are, not relating immediately to appropriations; besides, his experience entitled him that the Committee of Ways and Means would scarcely have time to mature the general appropriation bill. His idea was to get rid of the surplus revenue, which accumulated revenue he estimated at twenty millions of dollars, and to prevent any future accumulations by enlarging the list of free articles, having especial reference to the raw material, with a view to place American manufactures on a par with those of other countries.

In reply to some observations from Mr Brooks in favor of curtailing the revenues of the Government, Mr. Millson of Virginia remarked that a small reduction of the tariff will greatly increase the surplus.

Mr. Chrisman of N. C., was in favor of taking up the whole subject of the tariff, and thought that the present duties were far too high. He would be satisfied to see the revenue reduced to thirty millions. He was gratified that the proposition to reduce the tariff came from a gentleman who is identified with the protectionist party; but he did not wish to be understood as agreeing with that gentleman as to the manner or mode of reduction.

Mr. Brown of Mississippi, recollected that when the present tariff was being adjusted, the friends of protection were confident that the act would so cut off the revenue as to sink the government. They were perfectly confident it could not produce twenty millions of revenue. Mr. B. also said that though the government had a surplus of twenty millions it was involved in a debt of some seventy millions, and he thought that the present surplus might very properly be applied to a reduction of this debt, if it was not required for the completion of the public works in progress. He was satisfied with the tariff of '46, and was opposed to a return to minimums and specifics.

Mr. Dean, of New York, said he was astonished that his colleague should have brought forward his proposition, after the party of which he is a member had fought the battle in the New England States on the point of increasing the duties and of encouraging the manufactures of the country. Mr D. was opposed to any change in principle of the present tariff.

At the conclusion of his remarks he moved the previous question, and under its operation the amendment of Mr Brooks was disagreed to, yeas 73, nays 90.

Mr Weightman's amendment was then voted down, and the original proposition to refer and print the President's message was adopted.

Mr King of New York, from the Select Committee appointed at the last session to investigate the alleged fraudulent Gardiner claim, and the connection of Secretary Corwin therewith, made a report exonerating that gentleman from the charges made against him, and also introduced a bill to prevent frauds on the Treasury, which was read twice and recommitted.

The House then proceeded to the election of a Chaplain; the Rev. James Gallagher, a Presbyterian, being the successful candidate. The House then adjourned.

"DIGESTIN" such is the true meaning of the word "PEPSIN" one of the two Greek words from which it is derived. Thus is the significant and appropriate title of the TRUE DIGESTIVE FLUID or GASTRIC JUICE, prepared by Dr. J. S. HOUGHTON of Philadelphia, from the fourth Stomach of the Ox, for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia. It is Nature's own remedy for an ill-healthy Stomach. No act of man can equal its curative powers. It renders GOOD EATING perfectly consistent with HEALTH. See the figure of the Ox, in another part of this paper.

EVERY FAMILY should at once procure a bottle of the great Arabian remedy for man and beast, called H. G. FARRELL'S ARABIAN LINIMENT. It allays the most intense pains in a few minutes, restores the natural fluid or joint motion, and thus cures stiff joints, it penetrates the flesh to the bone, relaxes contracted cords, cures rheumatism and palsied limbs of twenty years standing, also frosted ears, swelled neck, enlargement of the glands and is the best medicine for ailments of cattle ever discovered, curing sweeny, fistula, ringbone, and all diseases which require an external application.

'Sun Pain of 10 years' standing cured by H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment.

Mr. H. G. FARRELL—Dear Sir: I had been afflicted with the Sun Pain for the last ten years, and could never get relief except by bleeding, but by the use of H. G. Farrell's Arabian Liniment, applied on the temples three or four times a day, I am entirely relieved, and do not feel the pain at all. I have used it in my family for a number of years, and have never known it to fail in curing the disease for which it was recommended. I have also used it in my family for Rheumatism, and have never found it to fail in relieving the pain. I have also used it for Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Cuts, Sprains, Swellings, &c., and have never found it to fail in curing the disease for which it was recommended. I have also used it in my family for Rheumatism, and have never found it to fail in relieving the pain. I have also used it for Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Cuts, Sprains, Swellings, &c., and have never found it to fail in curing the disease for which it was recommended.

Self Acquired Fame!

DR. JOHNSON'S

AMERICAN ANODYNE LINIMENT.

For Internal and External Use.

THIS wonderful Medicine, notwithstanding it has never had the advantage of newspaper puffing, has yet acquired a higher and more extended popularity than any other similar compound in the world It is entirely of vegetable extract, perfectly safe to be administered even to the most tender child, and strike astonishing and satisfactory in its effects upon man, or beast To those unacquainted with this invaluable medicine we say, try it in the first trial; and we pledge you a radical cure of Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Spitting of Blood, and all Lung Complaints Chronic Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, in all of which cases it should be used internally. The effects of its external application in cases of Rheumatism, Spinal Diseases Sprains, Scalded Hands, Bruises Burns, and all descriptions of wounds, are magical Persons troubled with Cramp in the Stomach, Side, or Bowels, Sore Throat, Piles, &c, by a combined internal and external application of this Anodyne, cannot fail of certain and speedy cure The proprietor can produce volumes of testimonials in its favor, but prefers to let it carry its own recommendations as it has done for forty years past We ask no man to use it after an unsatisfactory trial In its composition it unites several of the most penetrating and healing specifics known to the materia medica The inventor of this article was in the constant and successful practice of medicine for more than twenty years

This is to certify that having been troubled for a number of years with a distressing cough, and bleeding at the Lungs, and receiving no benefit from medicine, in 1848 I was to all appearance in the last stage of consumption My legs swelled in that I was unable to stand or help myself. At that time your Liniment was providentially recommended to me, and by the use of three or four bottles I was entirely cured, and have since been able to do my every day. I have also for the last twenty years been afflicted with severe attacks of bloody dysentery, and never found any permanent relief until I took your Liniment, since which I have had no return of this complaint I can truly say I think your Anodyne Liniment was the means of saving my life. JOHN F ATKINS.

Brewer, Sept. 29, 1852.

Dr Johnson: Dear Sir—In consequence of having a fever sore on my leg, it became entirely stiff at the knee, and it was decided by the best surgeons that my leg must be amputated—but fortunately I heard of your Anodyne Liniment, and by using three bottles, my leg was thoroughly and strengthened, and after a number of years I have been able to work about as well as the other I consider myself indebted to the use of your Liniment, through the blessing of Providence, for the use of my leg; and would say to others who may need help in this way, try it and no doubt you will be cured.

GEO. W. EMERSON,

"DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL!"

FOR GENITAL DEBILITY, INCOTINENCE, INCONTINANCE, OR NOCTURNAL EMISSIONS, &c. The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lassitude and General Prostration, of any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in after years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered, in fact as a remedy for the above complaints it stands unrivalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested and its virtues proclaimed by the highest talents of the faculty of London, Paris, and the other cities of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found; the only agent that can administer to MIND DISEASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, loss of MEMORY CONFUSION, thoughts of Self Destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by Sensual Excesses, or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. This however is not the fact.

DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL, has, and is constantly curing these complaints, relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names recently published will conclusively show.

Dr Woodward, of the Massachusetts Lunatic Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this cordial, thus:—It gives me pleasure to inform you that [illegible] of my patients, while in Boston, procured some of your Cordial. He told me that he had not had a single sensation of [illegible] since he left home before the had two or three weeks. When he applied to me, says Dr. W., I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicine used in those cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the meantime he purchased some of your Cordial which has effected a cure in case no other medicine could. I shall ever recommend it wherever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave the publication of certificates of course out of the question, and the proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive testimony to show that the greatest confidence may be placed in its efficacy, as well as the most speedy and permanent cure of private diseases, which occur. It is placed upon its own merits, and will continue to pay profit equal to its value to the public, as a person well skilled in the art cannot fail to regard those immediately afflicted.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF BILIOUS FEVER IN VAN DIEMEN'S LAND.

Copy of a Letter inserted in the Hobart Town Courier, of the 1st March, 1851, by Richard Walch

Margaret M'Connaghan, an eleven years of age residing at New Town, had been suffering from a violent rheumatic fever for upwards of two months which had entirely deprived her of the use of her limbs, during this period she was under the care of the most eminent medical men in Hobart Town, and by them her case was considered hopeless. A friend prevailed upon her to try Holloway's celebrated Pills, which she continued to use, and in an incredible short space of time they effected a perfect cure
